BENNINGTON COLLEGE

London School of Economics (LSE)
Summer Program Scholarship

Bennington College is pleased to announce a new partnership with the London School of Economics. Beginning in the summer of 2013, Bennington will offer one scholarship to support participation in a 3-week summer course at LSE.

Students with plan concentrations in the Social Sciences are encouraged to apply for the LSE Summer Scholarship. The LSE Summer program offers coursework in Accounting and Finance; Economics; Law; Management; and International Relations, Government, and Society. Successful completion of the summer course will earn 3 transfer credits.

Criteria:

- Applicants must have an approved Plan at the time of application
- Applicants must be in Good Academic Standing
- Students who will have completed their undergraduate degree prior to the summer session are ineligible.
- Summer LSE programs require a 3.3 GPA; if you do not have a GPA, please speak with Noelle Everett Murphy prior to your application to determine an equivalency.

Scholarship funding includes:

- LSE Summer Program tuition
- Costs of housing in one of LSE's Halls of Residence
- airfare to/from London
- a modest stipend for materials and other expenses related to program participation

Application information:

- Please complete the LSE Summer Scholarship application and submit it to Noelle Everett Murphy by November 15, 2012 at 5:00 pm
- The scholarship nominee and an alternate will be notified by December 7, 2012.
- The scholarship recipient should then apply directly to LSE as soon as possible; program openings often fill before the January 15 deadline
- Additional information about the London School of Economics and its summer course schedule

Contact Noelle Everett Murphy at x4664 or nmurphy@bennington.edu with questions