

Consent to Release Information

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, prohibits postsecondary educational institutions from disclosing the education records of students to most third parties without the students' written consent. Hampshire College provides student education records to third parties only if the student gives written consent.

This consent is being offered to allow students to be evaluated by the teach-out partner institutions, or your choosing, that have entered into agreements offering special considerations for transfer students from Hampshire College.
