

“Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening” “Ad-lib” Activity

Can you create a new and unique poem within the structure of Frost’s “Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening”?

Fill in the blanks using any words you choose.
Don’t worry about rhyming!

Whose _____ these are I think _____.
His _____ is in the _____ though;
He will not see _____ ing here
To _____ his _____ fill up with _____.

My little _____ must think it _____
To _____ without a _____ near
Between the _____ and _____
The _____ est _____ of the _____.

He gives his _____ a shake
To _____ if there is some _____.
The only other _____’s the _____
Of _____ wind and _____.

The _____ are _____, _____ and _____,
But I have _____s to _____,
And _____s to _____ before I _____,
And _____s to _____ before I _____.