

KANSAI GAIDAI REMOTE COURSE APPROVAL

Student's Name:

Concentration:

Term Standing:

Kansai Gaidai University is offering remote, online course offerings for Bennington College students. Students must register for these courses directly with Kansai Gaidai and pay the required fees directly to Kansai Gaidai; financial aid for these courses is not available. Students must also submit this form to Bennington for review and approval of course choices.

Transfer credit will be awarded upon successful completion of these courses (with equivalent grades of C or better). Because of our exchange relationship with Kansai Gaidai, no transfer credit fees will be charged for these courses.

In order to be eligible for this remote course approval, students are required to be enrolled full time (at least 12 credits) at Bennington College for the selected term of study.

Please provide this information (with attached course descriptions) about proposed courses:
