MARC PONTUS
March 15 7 PM

Music of Pierre Boulez

Marc Ponthus pioneered the monographic solo piano recital of leading avant-garde composers from the second half of the 20th century, devoting entire programs, often their entire piano music, to composers including Pierre Boulez, Karlheinz Stockhausen and Janis Sainello. He has recorded for Neuma Records, Laurel Records and Bridge Records. Gramophone Magazine chose his recording of Boulez's complete piano work as Editor's Choice. Ponthus was conductor of the Fairside Ensemble, the ICP Ensemble and the Project Visions Orchestra. He has staged and directed contemporary chamber operas. Ponthus edited and prefaced a book of essays on the music of Elliott Carter (Dredragon Press) and produced "Pierre Boulez in Conversation with Marc Ponthus," a video filmed at the Deutsche Staat Opera by the award-winning filmmaker Sylvia Colla.

Ponthus has performed extensively in North America and abroad in series and festivals. He composes under the "nom de plume" Otrix. He has combined video collage in live performance. He was the founder and artistic director of the Institute for Experimental Contemporary Performance in New York. He has written and directed numerous short films. His experimental film "Phantoms" and "It" ...the ruins of narrative... have been shown at a number of international film festivals. For Award for achievement in the arts.
