MIDDLEBURY LANGUAGE SCHOOLS LIEBOWITZ CENTENNIAL FELLOWSHIP NOMINATION

Bennington's partnership with the Middlebury Language Schools (MLS) has made it possible for three Bennington students to receive Jessica K. and Ronald D. Liebowitz Centennial Fellowships to support enrollment in the summer Language Immersion Programs.

The MLS offer programs in Abenaki, Arabic, Chinese, English, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese, Russian, and Spanish. Courses run for two, seven, or eight weeks at either the Middlebury or Bennington campus. Arabic, Italian, and Portuguese will operate at Bennington, while the remaining languages will be at Middlebury.

These intensive learning environments offer the opportunity to significantly advance a student's learning through complete language immersion. Students who continue to study their chosen language at Bennington, if available, will be placed at the appropriate level of language study with the permission of the instructors.

Students who successfully complete the summer program will earn transfer credits: 3 credits for the two week program, 9 credits for seven week programs, or 12 credits for eight week programs. Students should be in conversation with Academic Services to understand how transfer credits will be applied to their Bennington transcript.

Currently enrolled Bennington students studying in any discipline and in good academic and disciplinary standing are eligible. Funding priority will be given to students with an approved Plan and whose proposed language study complements the work of their Plan and/or career goals.
