

Tuition Benefit Form

You have indicated that you or a family member may be eligible for employer tuition benefits for your education at Bennington. Tuition benefits refer to financial assistance for educational costs, most commonly through employer-sponsored tuition reimbursement or assistance programs that pay for employee or dependent education.

Enter the details of the employee tuition benefit in the space provided below. Alternatively, you may attach a document from the employer which includes the details of the benefit. Let us know if your employer requires any documentation from the college in order to remit the benefit, such as an invoice, course listing, or proof of enrollment.

Please note that Tuition Benefits are applicable to Bennington College's tuition and required fees only. Tuition benefits will not cover housing, meals, housing damage fees, parking permits or health insurance. Late notification of tuition benefits will change your aid offer and likely result in the reduction of a previously awarded merit scholarship.

Tuition benefits (from an employer or 3rd party) will be packaged based on the instructions of the provider and in conjunction with Bennington's financial aid policy.

Tuition Benefits as well as outside scholarships earmarked for tuition may not exceed tuition charges when combined with Bennington College tuition-based scholarships and grants. The total aid, including Bennington College aid, outside scholarships and tuition resources, may not exceed the direct costs associated with tuition, housing or meal plans. If the outside aid exceeds direct costs, Bennington funding will be reduced.
